11. (SBU) Early Friday morning, July 24, due to the rumored arrival of President Zelaya, pro-Zelaya supporters gathered around the off-ramp to Danli on Tegucigalpa's peripheral highway with plans to caravan to the Las Manos border crossing with Nicaragua. As of 09:30 local (11:30 EDT), police and military reportedly put up a security fence and closed the Las Manos border crossing. They set up four checkpoints from the city of El Paraiso to the border, where approximately 100 pro-Zelaya supporters stayed the night. The Armed Forces took control of the customs facility at Las Manos as well.

(U) Late Thursday afternoon, July 23 the de facto government announced that the evening's curfew would be in place from 18:00-06:00 local (20:00-08:00 EDT) for areas along the Nicaraguan border and 00:00-04:30 local (02:00-6:30 EDT) for the rest of the country. Last night, 72 people were detained for violating curfew. The curfew remains in effect and is expected to cover the same hours tonight. The Embassy Warden Message urges AmCits to
